Elena Sharkova

Russian-America conductor Elena Sharkova is recognized nationally and internationally as an inspirational, versatile, and effective conductor, choral clinician, music educator, and lecturer. She has conducted professional, university, youth, and community choirs and orchestras in 17 countries across North America, Asia, Eastern and Western Europe, Russia, and the Middle East and is in her fourteenth year as Artistic Director of Symphony Silicon Valley Chorale and the Cantabile Youth Singers of Silicon Valley. Sharkova was born and raised in St. Petersburg, Russia, where she received an undergraduate degree in music education and piano and a graduate degree in conducting from St. Petersburg State Rimski-Korsakov Conservatory. In 1996 Sharkova received her second graduate degree in conducting from Western Michigan University, where she studied with Dr. Craig Arnold.

Jennifer Zaccagni

Jennifer Zaccagni has been a choral and collaborative musician in San Antonio for over 28 years. During that time she taught in area public and private high schools and more recently was a staff accompanist at UTSA, where she served as the concert choir and opera-theatre accompanist. She has frequently accompanied Region 11 and 12 clinic and choir concerts and has played for the Texas All-State choirs five times. Additionally, Zaccagni served as the Children's Chorus of San Antonio's principal accompanist for 17 seasons. She presently teaches at the Geneva School of Boerne, serving as director of the Rhetoric and Logic School vocal music programs. She also maintains a private piano studio and an active freelance career.

The Vocal Division expresses its appreciation to members of the Baylor Symphony, Stephen Heyde, Director, and to Sally Schott for providing program notes.
