About the Conductor

Brady Allred

Artistic Director and Conductor of the Salt Lake Choral Artists in Salt Lake City, Utah, Brady R. Allred has developed an international reputation for excellence. Under his direction, the Salt Lake Choral Artists, a community choir of 200 singers, has achieved critical acclaim for their innovative concerts and Summer Choral Institute program. Allred was formerly Professor of Music and Director of Choral Studies at the University of Utah in Salt Lake City and the first recipient of the Ellen Neilson Barnes Presidential Endowed Chair for Choral Studies at the University of Utah.

Known worldwide for their exquisite choral singing, Allred's ensembles have been invited to participate in major festivals and have received honors including the grand prize at the Florilège Vocal de Tours International Choir Competition, grand prize at the European Grand Prix International Choir Competition, and first prize at the Marktoberdorf International Chamber Choir Competition.

Allred has been a guest conductor for the Schumann Chamber Orchestra in Italy, the Wroclaw Philharmonic in Poland, the Symphonic Orchestra of the Russian Ministry of Defense, and the Salt Lake Mormon Tabernacle Choir. He has performed with the Robert Shaw Festival Singers and the Oregon Bach Festival Chorus. He has given conducting workshops and adjudicated in Spain, Germany, Slovenia, Ireland, Indonesia, and the Philippines.
