

Sir Arnold Bax (1883–1953)

Orchestral Works, Volume 4

- |     |   |       |
|-----|---|-------|
| [1] | The Tale the Pine-Trees Knew                 | 17:30 |
|     | 'To Sir John Barbirolli'                            |       |
| [2] | Into the Twilight                            | 12:54 |
|     | Part One of Éire                             |       |
| [3] | In the Faery Hills or An Sluagh Sidhe | 15:20 |
|     | Part Two of Éire                             |       |
| [4] | Roscatha                                     | 10:49 |
|     | Part Three of Éire                           |       |
|     | 'To the mountainy men of Glencolumcille'            |       |
| [5] | A Legend*                                    | 15:03 |
|     | Symphonic poem                                      |       |
|     | Allegro molto – Marcia trionfale                    |       |
| [6] | On the Sea Shore†                            | 7:37  |
|     | Edited and orchestrated by Graham Parlett           |       |

TT 79:37

Printed in the EU	MCPS
LC 7038	DDD
digitally remastered 24-bit/96 kHz

Ulster Orchestra

London Philharmonic Orchestra***

Bryden Thomson

Vernon Handley†