

PHONO
SUECIA

PSCD 054
DDD

A Phono Suecia-recording produced by STIM (The Swedish Performing Rights Society), Stockholm.
In 2002-2004 Phono Suecia is supported by the Swedish National Council for Cultural Affairs.

P. O. Swedish Music Information
Centre, Box 27327,
S-102 54 Stockholm, Sweden.
© & © 2002, STIM/Svensk Musik
www.phonosuecia.com
Made in Sweden

LARS-ÅKE FRANKE-BLOM

Endymion · NORRKÖPING SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

[1] Endymion (1997/2000) 13'01

Michail Jurowski conductor

Recorded live in the Hall of Louis de Geer, Konserthuset, Norrköping in 1999

Recording engineer Ingemar Åsén

[2] Längtans väv, symfonisk tondikt (1983-84) 21'41

*Calm waters – Dark masses of water in motion – Waterfall and empty industrial buildings – The machines are started. Weaving and looming
– The machines are turned off – Song dedicated to the workers –
Demonstration and fight for a better world*

Jukka-Pekka Saraste conductor

Recorded in Hörsalen, Norrköping in 1984

Recording producer Håkan Elmquist

Recording engineer Kerstin Ackerfors

Symphony No 3 "Fire on Earth" (1992-93) 23'15

[3] I "Jakobs Traum" 10'10 [4] II "Elisabeth von Österreich" 5'40

[5] III "Voyage au bout de la nuit" 7'22

Tuomas Ollila conductor

Recorded in the Hall of Louis de Geer, Konserthuset, Norrköping on August 19-20, 2002

Recording producer Håkan Elmquist

Recording engineer Torbjörn Samuelsson

Sound technician Måns Lundberg

Mastering Torbjörn Samuelsson, Sampler's Factory

Total time 58'11

LARS-ÅKE FRANKE-BLOM
ENDYMION

PHONO SUECIA
PSCD 054

LARS-ÅKE FRANKE-BLOM
ENDYMION

PHONO SUECIA
PSCD 054