POLIUTO

GAETANO DONIZETTI 1797-1848

Glyndebourne has brought to light a long-overlooked winner in Donizetti's Polliuto, delivering 'a superb musical performance' (The Telegraph) offering 'luculent accounts of the principal roles and an incandescent London Philharmonic Orchestra, under Enrique Mazzola' (New York Times). This first-ever professional UK staging of the story of third-century Armenian martyr St Polyuctus features a 'trio of world-class young singers' with Beverly Sills- and Richard Tucker-award-winning Fabiano displaying a 'thrilling, vibrant tone' in the title role, Martínez providing Paolina with 'pinging coloratura' and Golovatenco giving a 'radiant-toned' voice to Severo (The Guardian ★★★★★).

Sung in Italian with English, French, German, Japanese and Korean subtitles
